

Step up for PrEP and reduce your risk of HIV

Could you be suitable for

PrEP?

- PrEP (Pre-exposure prophylaxis) is a pill you can take to reduce your risk of HIV. You may be suitable if you don't have HIV but if you are at risk of exposure.
- If you think you would benefit from PrEP, talk to your healthcare provider at your GUM appointment.

